FOUR RIDERS ARE CONTESTING FOR WORLD HONOR

whole skin, by some miracle that protects man and beast in riding contests.

Steer Riding.

The cows were a little more on edge than the horses, and those who drew places in the opening day's ride, knew they had been through the mill. Irk Woodford placed first in easy fashion, with Billy Simon second, Sterling Ellis third, Watt Holder fourth, and L. A. Ryan fifth. This contest paid $40, $30, $20 and $10.

The Saddle Buckers.

There was a good deal of pitching under saddle, but some of the critters seemed stage struck, and instead of avoiding, took out on a dead lope for the corral. The interest in this contest will grow with each day, as the animals get used to the game and put their whole heart into it. "Zeb" downed Jack Garrett, "Panther" piled Al Ray up in a heap; Lee Robinson drew "Red Wing" and got by; Joe Rodriguez was disqualified by "Pitchfork;" "Tom King" was too much for Buck Lowry; Harry Henderson rode "Vinegar Roan;" Johnny Fredericks skated through on "John Cantrell" and "Doc" Pardee made the distance on "Big Sid." "Red Fox" made Hoot Gibson, a visiting member of the Los Angeles movie fraternity, resemble the sainted Jack Ryan, though this rider stayed put.

Calf-Tying Contest.

After the audience had been gazing long upon the gyrating of horses and cows of fair to middling size, the first call to be turned loose in a hostile world, seemed an awful puny thing for a man to battle, but when the first call was roared, and the honoree started in to down him, and he seemed to multiply his legs by four or five, everybody's sympathy was switched over to the human.

"Doc" Pardee got an ovation of kidding when he missed two flings at his veal and then had to chase the little devil clear to the corral and have a heart-to-heart talk with him before he could get the string adjusted. "Doc" made a fast tie, but the time he wasted coaxing the calf into the moose was fatal.

Thad Mullen made the best tie in 28½ seconds. There were three ties in the time. At the end of the contest, the times made by each entrant will be totaled, and the award made on the basis of the four ties.

The dope sheet for yesterday reads as follows:

Place.	Roper.	Time
1.	Thad Mullen	28½
2.	Jim Brown, Jack Charte	34
3.	Chas. Wood	35
4.	Walter Cline	36½
5.	A. F. Sanders	39
6.	J. Contreras	45
7.	Lone Jordan	47½
8.	L. L. Johnson and Ben Perkins	48
9.	Bob Gibbs and Asa Bozarth	50½
10.	Floy Tucker	51
11.	Floyd Burner	56
12.	Henry Ritter	1:00½
13.	Joe Dominguez	1:02
14.	P. B. Michel	1:16½
15.	Ed. Koontz	1:19
16.	"Doc" Pardee	1:35½
17.	Willie James	2:16½

DIZZY SPELLS

Relieved After Taking Two Bottles Of Cardui, Says Tennessee Lady.

Whitwell, Tenn.—Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of this place, writes: "About four years ago the dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk I would just pretty near fall. I wasn't past doing my work, but was very much run-down."

I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me, as a lady who I lived next door to me had taken a great deal, and told me to try it. This was when we were living in Kentucky."

My husband got me a bottle and I took it according to directions. It helped me so much that he went back and got me another bottle. I got a whole lot better and just quit taking it. I got over the dizzy spells... I took no other medicine at that time nor since for this trouble. No, I've never regretted taking Cardui. I felt just fine when I finished the second bottle."
